

Contact: Donna M. Autuori
 Autuori Corporate Communications, Inc.
 (631) 321-0045

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mullahy & Associates' Best in Class Case Management Program Receives Case In Point Platinum Award

CASEINPOINT
Platinum
 Awards
 2011 Winner

Huntington, NY...

As a testament to the high quality of its programs, Mullahy & Associates, LLC (www.mullahyassociates.com, Huntington, NY), a leading national consulting, educational and training organization, received the prestigious "Case in Point Platinum Award" for its "Best in Class Case Management Program." President Catherine M. Mullahy, RN, BS, CRRN, CCM, one of the healthcare industry's foremost leaders in advancing case management practices for enhanced healthcare, along with Vice President Jeanne Boling, MSN, CRRN, CDMS, CCM, also a highly-respected industry leader and former Executive Director of the Case Management Society of America (CMSA), received the award at the 2nd Annual Case In Point Platinum Awards Luncheon, recognizing the most successful and innovative case management programs working to improve healthcare. The awards luncheon was held at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C. on May 10, 2011. There were 31 Platinum Awards and over 100 honorable mention awards presented at the event.

According to Anne Llewellyn, RN-BC, MS, BHSA, CCM, CRRN, editor-in-chief with Dorland Health, an Access Intelligence, LLC Company, and leading integrated health care business media publisher whose holdings including Case In Point, "Once again, the Platinum Awards showcase the terrific work of case management programs that often fly under the view of industry professionals and the public."

On hand to see Mullahy & Associates and the other winners receive their awards were representatives from hospitals, health systems, managed care organizations, provider organizations and other leading institutions. Suzanne Mintz, president and CEO of the National Family Caregivers Association, gave the keynote presentation.

Mullahy & Associates' programs are widely-acclaimed for their robust content and the insights of their developers – Mullahy and Boling – both former practitioners with extensive clinical and healthcare business experience. The “Best in Class Case Management” and others have been used widely by the VA Medical Center, Indian Health Services, other hospitals and managed care organizations, as well as being sponsored by leading media organizations, such as Gannett. In addition to the “Best in Class Case Management Program,” the firm’s curriculum includes programs on “The Business of Case Management: Building Your Own Company,” “Best in Class Hospital Case Management,” and “Direct to Consumer Case Management,” among many other educational offerings. Mullahy is also the author of The Case Manager’s Handbook, now in its fourth edition and widely regarded as the profession’s definitive textbook. The book is a major component in some of these programs.

For more information, visit: www.mullahyassociates.com.

Photo Caption – (Left to right) Mullahy & Associates President Catherine M. Mullahy, RN, BS, CRRN, CCM, and Vice President Jeanne Boling, MSN, CRRN, CDMS, CCM , with their Case In Point Platinum Award.